Shipping.

Nederland left the dock at Antwerp on Saturday last. "We do not credit the report," said a member of the firm, "for the reason that there has been no weather on the English coast to warrant such a supposition, and, besides, this ship was the most strongly built one in the line, and has just undergone a thorough overhauling. We are inclined to believe that some foolish passenger has thrown the bottle overboard, as such things have been done frequently before. We are not ourselves in the least concerned for the safety of the ship."

HULL, February 7th. The ship Brandy from San Francisco, lost four men in a hurricane, and a boat with the stern marked "Utopia, Glasgow," has been found. The funnel of the steamer Utopia had no band, consequently the steamer reported foundered off Cape Cornwall with a red band around the funnel cannot be the Utopia.

BERLIN, February 7th. Referring to the discussion in France on General Thebaudin's conduct at Metz, the Kreuz Zeitung says: "The government is right in deeming it a matter for the French people and the army to consider, whether they are willing to accept as the highest representative of the army a General who has broken his word of honor."

Germany continues excited over the elevation of General Thebaudin to the ministry of war. The Berlin Post says: "The incident may possibly prove a source of fresh calamities for France and Germany and a misfortune to the countries likewise."

ST. PETERSBURG, February 7th. The Czar, in the manifesto fixing the date of his coronation, says: "We were determined in our heart not to perform this sacred rite until the feelings, which have been excited by the crime by which the benefactor of his people fell a victim, had had time to calm."

HAMBURG, February 7th. The case against the Captain of the steamer Sultan which ran into and sunk the Cimbria, will be brought to trial on Saturday, when eight witnesses from the Sultan and Cimbria will be examined. It is rumored that the prosecution will be for manslaughter.

DUBLIN, February 7th. The authorities have decided to accept the evidence of John Devine, the painter, one of the three prisoners charged with the murder of policeman Cox. Devine's evidence is very startling. He says, presiding at the first public meeting of the National Land League, referred to his impending imprisonment, and reiterated his intention of pursuing the cause which has marked his political life.

BERLIN, February 7th. The Prussian provinces—Saxony, Hesse and Nassau—have been designated for the great military maneuvers under the personal direction of Emperor William. Five weeks will be devoted to siege operations.

CITY OF MEXICO, February 7th. John G. Buchanan Hepburn, son of Sir Thomas Buchanan Hepburn, the English baronet, was murdered by miners on Sunday in Pinos Alta, Chihuahua. The five murderers were tried and shot on Monday.

PARIS, February 7th. The feeling of uneasiness continues. Business is stagnant, and the public is yearning for a strong government.

LONDON, February 8th. A schooner has been wrecked near Port Arney, Ireland, and another near the Shetland Islands, Scotland. In the first case five sailors were drowned; in the second the whole crew perished.

The steamer Benbow, which sailed on January 23rd for Boston, has returned to Liverpool with her machinery damaged.

ANTWERP, February 8th. The steamer Nederland passed the Scilly Islands on Monday, and as no unusually bad weather has been reported and her rigging was intact, the report of her loss is unlikely to be true.

GLASGOW, February 8th. The Anchor line steamer Utopia, from New York, January 23rd, has arrived. "All well."

ST. JOHN (N.B.), February 8th. The brigantine Zigzag, from Cardiff, has been lost, with all on board.

DUBLIN, February 8th. Davitt, Healy and Quinn, arrested some ago for making inflammatory speeches, have refused to give bail, and were this morning lodged in Kilmainham jail for a term of six months.

Archbishop McCabe is better, but still very feeble.

Two farmers have been arrested at Hamilton, in County Armagh, on a charge of conspiring to murder government officers.

Two thousand starving persons to-day surrounded the house of the poor law inspector, on Glen Columbkille, demanding employment.

Thomas A. Guinness is the Liberal-Conservative candidate for County Dublin for Parliament. An influential meeting has asked Colonel King Harman to be a candidate.

T. M. Healy, in a speech advocating a better system of government in Ireland, advised that all local affairs, such as the management of rates, appointments of magistrates, &c., should be referred to elected boards, each of which shall send delegates to a central council of the province, which shall have the powers in regard to private bills now exercised by Parliament.

Chief Secretary Trevelyan has started for England, escorted by detectives.

LONDON, February 8th. Detectives have arrested Thomas Fitzpatrick, in Parish Poplar, and conveyed him to Ireland, charged with complicity with other prisoners arrested for conspiracy to murder government officials.

Two thousand starving persons to-day surrounded the house of the poor law inspector, on Glen Columbkille, demanding employment.

Thomas A. Guinness is the Liberal-Conservative candidate for County Dublin for Parliament. An influential meeting has asked Colonel King Harman to be a candidate.

T. M. Healy, in a speech advocating a better system of government in Ireland, advised that all local affairs, such as the management of rates, appointments of magistrates, &c., should be referred to elected boards, each of which shall send delegates to a central council of the province, which shall have the powers in regard to private bills now exercised by Parliament.

Chief Secretary Trevelyan has started for England, escorted by detectives.

West-Indians, the Lord Mayor said, that such speeches as were made by O'Donnell and others at the meeting from which the deputation emanated are certain to frustrate an accessory fund traceable to such agency. He was, however, willing to receive contributions, and if the amount justified to eventually open a fund.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8th. Advice from St. Thomas says that General Guillermo, ex-President of Santo Domingo, and eleven other exiles left there on the 29th of January, on the British steamer Yucatan with the avowed purpose of organizing in Jamaica a formidable party to invade Santo Domingo and Hayti.

MONTREAL, February 8th. It is stated that 150 bodies have been stolen from graveyards in the vicinity of Montreal during the winter, half of which were sent to medical schools in the United States.

TORONTO (Ont.), Feb. 8th. The Royal Opera-House was burned this morning. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $20,000.

PARIS, February 8th. Dealers and members of the demi-monde, mainly, attended the sale of Sara Bernhardt's jewels to-day. A necklace of rose diamonds brought 24,000 francs and two bracelets sold for 8,000 francs each.

BERLIN, February 8th. The North German Gazette, referring to the animadversions of German newspapers on the appointment of General Thebaudin as French Minister of War, in view of his conduct at Metz, says that criticism on French home affairs ought to be left to the French press. It is to be regretted, the Gazette says, that German Conservative journals disregard the reserve dictated by political prudence.

LONDON, February 8th. The bullion in the Bank of England increased £380,000 during the past week. The proportion of the reserve to the liability is 46 per cent.

Thirty thousand tons of new shipping have been ordered on the Clyde during the past fortnight, including steamers for the North German Lloyd Company.

The regulation enacted some time ago that military telegraph stations should remain open all night, because of sudden necessity for dispatch, is now suspended.

The Times says: Lord Dufferin, who is now in Egypt representing the British Government, has drafted a dispatch informing the necessity of a protecting Government for Egypt against Egyptian intrigues and internal weakness, until it is able to stand alone. It condemns alike the premature abandonment of responsibility and annexation.

BERLIN, February 8th. The Liberals and Ultramontanes protest against holding sessions of the Landtag and Reichstag simultaneously.

The Reichstag voted 100,000 marks for exploring Central Africa.

It is announced from Rome that the Pope has replied to the letter received recently from Emperor William.

The Prussian motion in the Bundesrath for an increase of duties on timber is constantly opposed. It is thought it can only be adopted after being greatly modified. The bill providing for fortifying harbors has been dropped for this session.

The Reichstag Committee has resolved to prosecute Deputies Geyser and Frohme, socialists, for the improper use of railway free passes.

BRUSSELS, February 8th. In an action brought against Bishop De Roussaux, Dumont, by Mons. Dumont, who was deposed of the Bishopric by the Pope in 1879, Lourney claiming to be Bishop, to recover papers and securities representing several million francs abstracted from the Episcopal Palace and taken to America by Canon Bernard, the civil tribunal decided that it is unable to prevent Dumont from assuming the title of Bishop, and has appointed a trustee to go to America to recover the property, reserving all rights of Dumont in the event of Bishop De Roussaux continuing his opposition to Mons. Dumont's regaining possession of the same.

MADRID, February 8th. The Council of Ministers has decided on the proposition of the Minister of the Colonies to treat as freemen forty thousand slaves who were not liberated by their owners in Cuba in 1870. The Minister of the Colonies will grant Cuba electoral laws similar to those on the peninsula. The press applauds the act of the Minister in regard to Cuban slaves.

ST. THOMAS, February 8th. General Guillermo, an ex-priest, of Santo Domingo, and eleven other exiles left here on the 29th of January, on the British steamer Yucatan, with the avowed purpose of organizing in Jamaica a formidable party to invade Santo Domingo and Hayti. The Dominican Consul has chartered a schooner to convey to Santo Domingo intelligence of Guillermo's designs.

CETINJE, February 8th. The Montenegrin Government announces the rupture of relations between Montenegro and Turkey, because the latter has failed to agree to a cessation of territory.

A schoolman named Doyle was arrested this morning charged with complicity in a conspiracy to murder government officials. He will be arraigned to-morrow.

Davitt, Healy and Quinn will be treated as first-class prisoners during their confinement in jail.

Woodhouse, a poor law inspector, in answering the demand for employment from the starving poor who assembled at his hotel yesterday, admitted that he was a member of the country of Denmark and advocated emigration, when some one in the crowd exclaimed, "We would rather die than emigrate!"

Archbishop McCabe's condition is regarded as dangerous.

O'Donnell, member of Parliament for Dungarven, writes the Lord Mayor of London that the Mansion House, in its relation to Ireland, is a leech-sucker, not a helper.

HAMBURG, February 8th. At the Court of Inquiry, Saturday, into the disaster to the steamer Cimbria, the following persons from the steamer Sultan will be examined: Captain Cuthill, the first and second officers, the first engineer, boatswain and two seamen. At the time of the first collision one of the sailors was on the look-out and the other and the boatswain were at the helm. The witnesses at the primary inquiry will conclude their depositions. An officer served from the Cimbria will be cross-examined. The witnesses from the Cimbria will be examined on Tuesday.

EDINBURGH, February 8th. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in a speech here, denied the statement made that diminution of crime in Ireland is more apparent than real. He referred to the rapidly with which murderous crimes have diminished when it became apparent the murderers would be executed. He denied that the government supported freedom of speech or liberty of the press. The Government was ready to work with the Irish members in Parliament in advocating legislative schemes of reform.

OTTAWA (Ont.), February 8th. At the opening of the Parliament to-day, the Governor-General, in the address from the throne, said: "While passing through the United States I was rejoiced to observe many evidences of regard for the empire of which this country forms so large a portion. May this friendship, so fully expressed by us, be as enduring as it is advantageous to the mutual interests of both great nations."

DUBLIN, February 8th. The trial of William O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, for seditious libel, was begun to-day. A. M. Sullivan, M. P., who is defending the accused, challenged the whole jury, on the ground that the sheriff neglected certain necessary formalities in summoning them. They were sworn to decide the question, but they decided against Sullivan.

ST. PETERSBURG, February 8th. The Russian Minister of War was recently advised that Nihilistic ideas possessed the officers of the Army of the Caucasus. Strict inquiry having proved the correctness of the information, the incriminated persons were arrested. Positive signs of disaffection are reported among the Ural Cossacks.

MADRID, February 8th. In the Chamber of Deputies, Vice-Admiral Pavia said the government was attending to the reorganization of the navy. Nine men-of-war are now building or repairing.

LONDON, Feb. 8th. A steamer has been wrecked off Harwich. The crew was lost.

DOCK COMPANIES' CHARGES. The Times says:—It is no secret in commercial circles that for some time the dock companies of London have contemplated an increase in their charges on shipping; and we have now received from them notice of some very important alterations to take effect on the 12th inst. Hitherto it has been their practice to assess the payment for the discharge of vessels on the net register tonnage, in contradistinction to the custom at the ports, where the rate is levied on the weight of goods discharged. The principal feature of the alterations now announced is the assimilation of the London method to that of the other ports. The practice of charging on the register tonnage of the vessel is a relic of the days of sailing-ships, when the difference between the gross and the register tonnage was almost nominal. But the introduction of steam has produced an important distinction between the two measurements—a distinction which has been continually on the increase, and is now becoming so notorious that, as we recently explained, the register tonnage of any one of our great ocean-going steamers is no indication of its enormous carrying capacity, which not infrequently doubles that of the register. The result has been that for years the receipts of the dock companies which are derived from their rates for discharging cargoes and the work actually done have been affected by the serious divergence between the two measurements; and their income has been further reduced by the deductions claimed off the register tonnage on account of cabin space, chain lockers, deck houses, water tanks, and other features of vessels propelled by steam. In addition to this, there is the further circumstance, to which we referred some weeks ago, that the skill of marine architects is steadily devoted to increase the proportion between the gross and the register tonnage of vessels. Under the circumstances, the dock companies have determined to abandon the register as a basis of charge, and to adopt the more rational system of charging for the work actually done, readjusting the present rates accordingly. The public will not be surprised to find that, while the revised tariff shows a reduction in some of the existing rates, there is an increase in many of the items of charge. The dock companies also claim, we understand, that, irrespective of the losses they have sustained under the system of charging on the register tonnage, the demands of the trade for despatch, night work, &c., have so enormously increased their expenditure on labour that the present rates have become wholly unremunerative, in fact, that they are really working at a loss in many cases, and the poor dividends earned by most of them may be regarded as an indication that there is truth in this assertion. An increase of charge is never kindly received, however, by those who are affected by it, and while the dividend now paid by the dock companies, especially those whose property is situated on the northern bank of the river, where the steam business is conducted, would appear to lend some countenance to their action, they must expect the new rates to be sharply criticized by a not too friendly public.

MAILS EXPECTED. THE ENGLISH MAIL. The P. & O. Co.'s steamer Ancona, with the next English mail, left Singapore for this port on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 5 p.m., and is due here on or about Saturday, the 17th.

MR. MOORE begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.

The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs; by its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.
